

An IMMEDIATE and serious investigation into Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is needed. This is a clear example of the dangers that media consolidation has given rise to. Prompt action needs to be taken by the FCC to remedy this situation, either by requiring Sinclair to air a documentary representing an opposing view or not to air "Stolen Honor" at all.